My Testimony:

I was born and brought up in a Hindu family. I was not at all interested in Christianity. When I was about 19 years old, I used to disturb the Christian meetings held at my village. I thought this foreign god and they were ruining our holy faith and religion.

At that age I was involved with politics that means they select young people and use them to beat, burn the houses of opposite party. That was the life threatening job, so my parents thought that I would be killed by the opposite party because of my involvements they sent me to Kakinada town where I was doing the same, but the place only changed. In the town I used to go to the meeting place and I used to throw stones at the people so that they will never have a Christian meeting in our area.

One day I was coming from a movie in the evening and we heard a wonderful song that I ever hear before so, we went there and sat on the wall, soon after the meeting was over one white man got up and he bragged about my country and food then he went on saying, I came here to tell you about the true God who made Heavens and Earth. I got mad and I said in my heart, we have over 30 million god, but he said, there is only one True God. Of course he was went on saying He created human being but they disobeyed God but God is so loving and he came to Save us, while we are at sinners He died for us.

He also explained about Heaven and Hell and made an invitation, if you don't receive Jesus you will be in Hell. I was scared to death but because of my friends I did not go along with the crowed going with weeping.

That same night I was on my bed thinking if I die, I will go to Hell, now what to do I lost my chance, thinking that I went to sleep. At midnight I was on the floor weeping and confessing my sins and I wept for three hours. Then the following day one pastor inviting my aunt to the Church, then I went to him and told him what happened to me last night, and then he opened the Bible and led me to the Lord. I accepted Jesus as my personal Savior. I sensed the call of God and then I went to Bible, now I am in the ministry for the last 24 years.

Bro.Anand Kumar.

Testimony of Vijay lakshmi:

I was born and brought up in a Hindu family. I married a Pastor and he tried to lead me to the Lord but I did not accept the Lord. One day he was preaching in the Church, he explained about the cross of Christ and His suffering,then Holy Spirit touched my heart and then realized that I am a sinner and I need Jesus so I received Jesus as my personal savior and serving the Lord with my husband.Please pray for our ministry.

Vijaya lakshmi(GRACE).
