1. Please write a detailed testimony of your salvation.

I was born on the twenty first of August 1967. I grew in a Christian family. Therefore I attended the church as usual and became a strong member of the church. But I was not saved. I was even baptised in 1980 and attended Lord's table. I was elected to be a local church secretary but I was still a non believer. Because at these, I thought I was a Christian. On the first of January 1981, there came a missionary who preached from Romans 10:9-10 that says that one must believe in his heart and confessed with his mouth so as to be saved. On that day, I confessed Jesus as Lord and saviour of my life.

2. Please write a brief testimony of your wife.

Ayres was born in a non Christian family and grew as a non Christian. One time when she was at school, she met one of their teacher who was a strong Christian. That teacher led her to Christ and since then, she has been a blessing to her parents. When we got married in 1994, she has been a blessing to me and my ministry.
